Thank you to all who participated in 99 Cent Magic Night!

I didn't get the details on everyone. Thank you for those who emailed me!

Larry Campbell: Rope in the bottle. Cups and ball with a monster at the end.

Scott Boeger: I had Larry Campbell move a random number of times between 5 greeting cards on a display stand,(all bought at the dollar store). He miraculously ended up on the only Father's Day Card which was in my prediction envelope.

Bill Pearce: I performed a calendar prediction using a dollar store full year calendar. Someone named any date in the year and the joker from a Dollar Store deck located the card in the calendar at the freely selected date.

NEXT MEETING: July 20th — Rising Star Lecture with Michael O'Brien!

Michael is a professional close-up magician in the Orange County and Los Angeles Areas. For over ten years he has been entertaining audiences of all ages, specializing in formal close-up, strolling and table-hopping magic.

A Message From Michael:

My lecture will feature routines and ideas from my new book "The Imagine Nation Project." We will cover new sleights, techniques and gimmicks to add to our existing routines as well as talk about the motivation and theory behind each performance. The overall goal is to do two things: Provide you with highly visual and magical routines that will let your audiences imagination run wild as well as give you ideas on how to use your own imagination to create your own tricks that will play big to your target clientele, thus maximizing the potential for leaving lasting impressions on your audience.

FUTURE MEETINGS

August: Show and Tell. A lot of us will be at Magic Live.

September: Lecture - TBA - If anyone has ideas for who they would like to see lecture, please email me. ocmcwebmaster@gmail.com
