October's Meeting

October's meeting was a chance for those performing in the November show to rehearse their act. Tonight's performers included: Rocky, Jason, Jaron, Brad, Ed, and Harrison. Once everyone had a chance to try out their act, Mel performed a classic routine from his repertoire.

First up, Harrison, was assisted by members from the audience. Numbered balls randomly picked from colorful bags by audience members while Brett recorded those numbers gave us a wonderful example of mentalism.

Next up was Rocky. Rocky gave a wonderful performance of a book test, finishing up by finding a torn page from the book in an envelope in Fernando's possession the entire time!

Jason was up next and got members of the audience involved to select a random card, named by Jason.

Ed, was up next. Ed had 5-audience members come up on stage to assist in a wonderful Thanksgiving themed magical effect.

Jaron was up next. After magically having a selected card rise from the deck, Jaron used the Wizard's Code to produce a large image of a selected card on the back of the Wizard's Code. Jaron ended by changing a Chinese coin into a British sovereign coin while held inside Rocky's closed hand.

Mel finished off the evening with a wonderful routine of classic magic.
