February Meeting.

We'll have Show & Tell for members who would like to get up and perform an effect they've been working on.

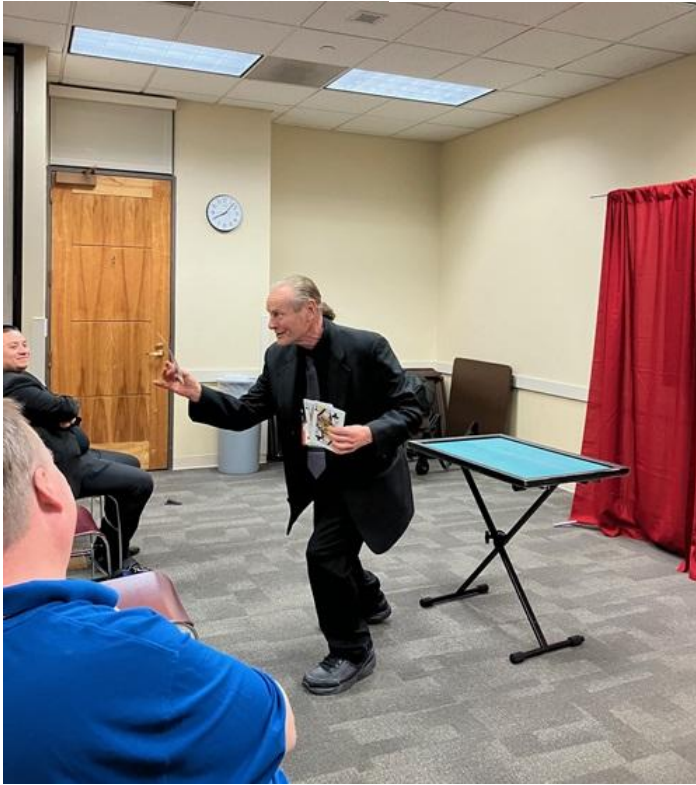

This month's meeting will have a new item on the agenda, featuring OCMC Vice-President Harrison Kaplan. Beginning at the next meeting, Harrison will select one magic book from his vast library of books covering all aspects of the art of magic. Harrison will perform and talk about the effect and provide the book name and page number, so that you will be able to find the book, and learn the effect. Harrison will choose effects that are very doable; normally, with common items, such as cards, coins, and other readily available items, such as dice, string, and paper. Harrison is very fond of the Dover paperback books; they are inexpensive and readily available.

His goal is to encourage club magicians to start or continue to build their library of magic books and to realize that it does not have to be a costly adventure.

The book discussed, will be donated by Harrison to the' raffle. So, consider participating in the raffle for a chance at some of these books.

Attending these sessions will help motivate the magician, enough so, that and after a year, he or she will be able to confidently get up and perform a solid set of magic.
