November Meeting

At our November meeting, many members got up to showcase the latest magical effect they've been working on.

November Stage Show

OCMC's Annual Stage show in November was our best show ever. Vinnie Marini immediately got the crowd in the right frame of mind, with his pre-show demonstration of one the most fun, exciting, and magical performances of the 3-Shell Game. We all crowded around Vinnie's table and he astonished all of us with his dazzling performance and engaging personality. It was a thrill to watch as Vinnie moved the shells around and the pea simply seemed to have a mind of its own.

After the pre-show, and everyone found their seats, Andrew Wheeler took the stage as the MC for the evening. He donned a life-like gorilla mask with striking yellow eye-glasses and tennis shoes. Already, a very visual sight, coupled with Andrew's humorous presentation, really elevated the mood in the room to an even higher level. Andrew would introduce all the acts for the evening, along with a few magical and very funny routines of his own. There was even a rubber chicken that could read minds. Hysterical!

Vinnie, after captivating the crowd during the pre-show, took the stage first with another crowd-pleasing performance with a dose of nostalgia.

Then, Western Palacios took the stage with some wonderful rope magic, Western style, of course! Western brought the energy in the room to an even higher level.

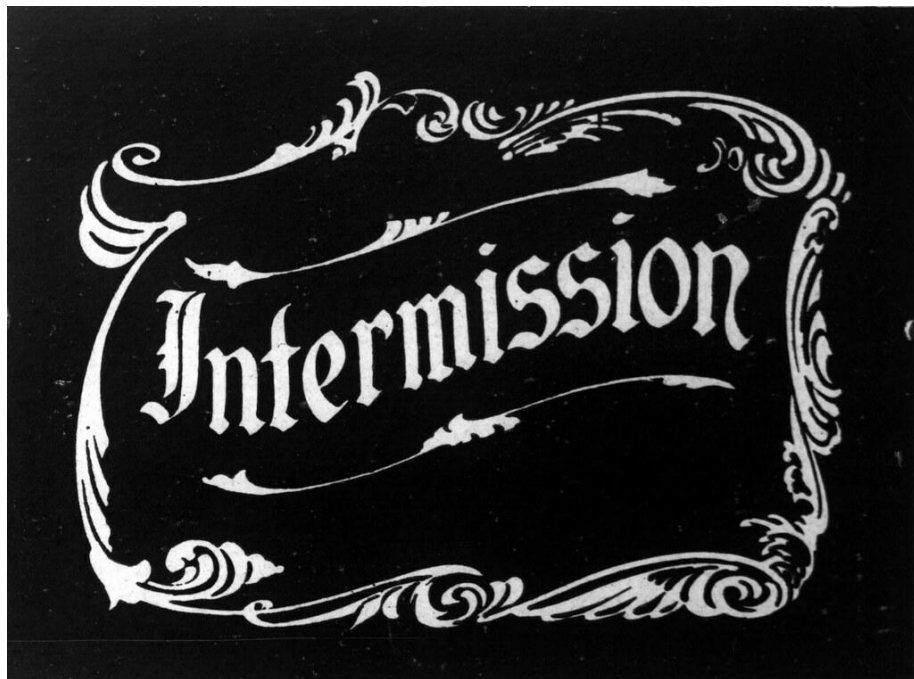

Ed Smith finished off the first half of the show with a wonderful mind reading effect which amazed everyone.

Phil Ureno gets the entire audience involved in a clever and very surprising and entertaining display of mentalism.

Our MC for the evening Andrew Wheeler keeps the flow of the evening with some great magic between performances.

Alan Hanson closed the show with a beautiful performance of the linking rings, as well his wonderful bottle routine performance, which was a great topper to end this fantastic evening.
